Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. Behavior that violates these standards is not acceptable. Examples are the use of unauthorized material, communication with fellow students during an examination, attempting to benefit from the work of another student and similar behavior that defeats the intent of an examination or other class work. Detection of Plagiarism

Students agree by taking this course that all required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity to SimCheck for the detection of plagiarism. All submitted papers will be included as source documents in the SimCheck reference database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of such papers. Use of the SimCheck service is subject to the Terms of Use posted on the SimCheck website. (This statement may not apply if SimCheck will not be used.)

Lecture Capture and FERPA

Certain content obtained through the video and audio recording of classes may be classified by the Family Educational and Privacy Act (FERPA) as an educational record. Such records are protected by the guidelines established by FERPA and require your written consent for 3rd party disclosure. An overview of these guidelines can be found on the website of the U.S. Department of Education with additional information available through Southeastern's Center for Faculty Excellence.
