Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Policy Statement

Student Accessibility Services ensures access for qualified students with disabilities, promotes self-advocacy, skill development, and provides guidance to the student. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and University policy, Student Accessibility Services ensures equal opportunities, without regard to disability, in the programs and services provided.

Applicability

A person with a disability is any person with a physical or mental impairment, which substantially limits one or more major life activities. Disabilities include but are not limited to:

II. Appeal Procedure

If any student is dissatisfied with decisions of Student Accessibility Services or feels that a faculty member has failed to provide accommodations determined by Student Accessibility Services to be appropriate, students may file a grievance with the EEO/ADA Compliance Office. The procedure is as follows:

Southeastern Louisiana University has adopted an internal grievance procedure providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by the U.S. Department of Justice regulations implementing Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Title II states, in part, that "no otherwise qualified disabled individual shall, solely by reason of such disability, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination" in programs or activities sponsored by a public entity.

Complaints should be addressed to the EEO/ADA Compliance Officer, who has been designated to coordinate ADA compliance efforts.

1. A complaint should be filed in writing or verbally, contain the name and address of the person filing it, and briefly describe the complaint.
